

Dear Sir:

Our family time is extremely important to us. A constantly ringing phone makes this evening time impossible. Even if we choose not to answer, homework is interrupted.

The Do not Call list and the stringent enforcement of this law by the State of New Jersey needs to remain in effect.

I hope that this do not call list can extend to faxes and spam.

Thank you